A Star Shall Fall (#3) - JABberwocky Literary Agency, Inc

The one novella, Deeds of Men, bridges Midnight and Ashes, and details Deven's efforts to solve a murder and ensure that his position in the Onyx Court is filled upon his death. The author considers the books to be "semi-standalone", meaning that the reader need not read them all in order to understand them; however, they follow the same continuity, and reading later books first will definitely spoil previous ones.

Onyx Court (Literature) - TV Tropes

At one point in the 'Onyx Court' series, I think during 'In Ashes Lie', I suggested that Lune might come to love someone else eventually. Which was me pushing back against the narrative trope that people only get one True Love in their entire lives - an idea I think is kind of pernicious - but in retrospect, I wish I hadn't done it there.
